Game Day Preview for 11-9-2002

The Basics:

Saturday, November 9th, 2002

Arizona Caliente (5-1) vs. California Quake (3-4)

Game time - 3:05pm (Gates open at 2:00pm)

North High School (1101 E. Thomas Rd. - Phoenix, AZ)

The Scoop:

This will be the second meeting of the 2 teams this season, with the Caliente having beaten the Quake 32-12 in their meeting in Long Beach on September 21st, 2002. Although the California team has a disappointing record this season, they have had a very tough schedule facing the undefeated Sacramento Sirens, as well as the Hawaii Legends (5-1), but are certainly not a team to be taken lightly as they are currently the defending Women's World Bowl Champions. Come support your team - this is the LAST Regular Season HOME game scheduled for the Caliente!

In honor of 9-11, the Arizona Caliente Fall 2002 game admission is only $5.00 for all Public Service Professionals with ID (Police Officers, Firefighters, and Military)

Caliente In the Media

Make sure to pick up the Tuesday, November 5th issue of the Arizona Republic to see your Arizona Caliente featured in the Sports Section.

Also, watch for the Caliente to finally have their match-up with ABC 15's Craig Fouhy. Almost a year in the making, Fouhy, who made some "not-so-supportive" comments last season about women playing football, will be suiting up in pads and will face the Caliente head-on Wednesday November 6th, 2002. Scheduled to air are live shots on the 6:00pm News, as well as follow-up as Fouhy finds out once and for all that these women are the real deal.

Playoff Picture

The Arizona Caliente are primed to be a huge part of this year's WAFC playoff picture boasting a 5-1 record going into their last 2 games of the regular season. Playoff game dates/times and locations will be announced following the Wednesday, November 6th game where the Hawaii Legends (5-1) take on the Sacramento Sirens (6-0) in Sacramento, CA.

Group tickets are available for all upcoming Arizona Caliente games; get your group together and make a day of it. Please call Jennifer Cada at 602-679-3960 for more information.
